Drug Arrest

On June 7, 2022, Manchester Police arrested 19-year-old Hunter Benoit of Manchester on several outstanding warrants stemming from incidents earlier this year. Benoit's arrest resulted from an extensive investigation that spanned several months.

On February 4, 2022, Manchester Police responded to 28 Claremont St after a Probation officer doing a check on Benoit located controlled substances in the home. During the investigation, police searched the residence. They found a large quantity of marijuana, numerous edible gummies, prescription pills, and a substantial amount of cash.

A warrant was issued for Hunter Benoit, charging him with Possession of Controlled Drugs with the Intent to Distribute (Felony). Benoit also faced a charge of Indecent Exposure and Lewdness for an incident several days later at the Hilton Garden Inn. In that incident, Benoit exposed himself to a hotel employee.

Manchester Police responded to Benoit's address on Tuesday, June 7. Benoit ran out a back door and through the woods. He was eventually taken into custody on the two warrants and was additionally charged with Resisting Arrest.

Benoit will be arraigned today, June 8, 2022, in Hillsborough Superior Court North.
